

A LIVING STONE SELECTED ESSAYS AND ADDRESSES

Michael Prior, Vincentian priest, scholar and activist: born Cork, Ireland, 15 March 1942; ordained priest 1969; Senior Lecturer in Theology and Religious Studies, St Mary's College, Strawberry Hill, University of Surrey, 1977-97, Head of Department 1987-97, Principal Lecturer 1997-2002, Senior Research Fellow 2002-04, Professor of Bible and Theology 2004; died Osterley, Middlesex, 21 July 2004.

This volume of selected essays and addresses is a testimony to Michael's immense contribution in the fields of Biblical and Holy Land studies, with a biographical introduction by Duncan Macpherson.

After a biographical essay by his friend and colleague, Duncan Macpherson, a selection of Michael Prior's essays and addresses are grouped under four headings:

New Testament Scholar
The Pilgrim and the Living Stones
Interrogator of the Bible
Critic of Zionism

This is followed by a bibliography of published works with other information on this remarkable man.
