

The Michael Prior Memorial Lecture, 2016

The Balfour Declaration:

acknowledging Britain's past and exploring her responsibility for peace-making: a Christian perspective to be given by Professor Mary Grey,

Chair of the Living Stones of the Holy Land Trust

Thursday 28th January 2016

6pm at the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer

Followed by a panel discussion; beverages will be available.

Professor Mary Grey is currently chair of the Living Stones of the Holy Land Trust, under whose auspices this Michael Prior Memorial Lecture is arranged.

Professor Grey was the D.J.James Professor of Pastoral Theology, University of Wales, Lampeter, and a Professorial Fellow at St Mary's, Twickenham (now St Mary's University) London. Besides supervising PhD students, she lectures widely on social justice and related areas of spirituality, co-edits a series of academic journals, and is involved with the ecumenical network Kairos Europa and the charity Wells for India.... among many other activities.

Find us on facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/livingstonesonlineuk/> and at www.livingstonesonline.org.uk

Living Stones of the Holy Land Trust is a registered charity in England and Wales (Reg. Charity No. 1081204)